SUNRDAY MORNING, JUNE 19, 1853.

THE TURY,

TROTHING RADY OVE THE NASHVILLE COURSE IN HARNESS. - A very animated trotting race came off yesterday over the Nashville Trotting Course, between the two well known nags Mary Millard and Dolly Smith. Mary was rather the favorite from the start, and won the purse in two strait heats-Dolly had very coefident friends, and the time made shows that she pushed her rival hard. We annex a summary:

NASSULLA THOTTING COURSE-Purse $150 for trotters: entrance, 25: mile heats in harness, first two in three: Mary Millard, ch. m. entered by G. Faurchen, 1 1 Dolly Smith, ph. m., entered by H. S. Avent, 2 2 Time: 2 38%-2:59.

EXCULPATION OF YOUNG SPRING BY HIS FATHER .-Spring, who was executed at Philadelphia on Friday, the 10th, affixed his signature to the following exculpation of his son, young Arthur Spring, before his execution. If there was an impression on the mind of any one, as to the guilt of the son, this solemn assertion of the father must entirely remove it, while at the same time it cannot fail to confirm the conviction that Arthur Spring, sr., was guilty of the dreadful crime for which he suffered an ignominious death:

MOVAMENSINO PRISON, June 7, 1853. I. Arthur Spring, do most solemuly, in the fear of God, (before whom I am soon to appear,) and in the presence of Rev. John Street and Rev. Mr. Kensil, declare that my son, Arthur Spring, Jr., (as far as I know) had no hand in the murder of Mrs. Shaw and Mrs. Lynch-neither do I believe that he had any knowledge of those persons being murdered. Witness my hand, this day, as above writ-ARTHUR SPRING.
